EDITED BY MICHAEL BILLESTER

ZONDERVAN Publishing Co.

The content of this booklet is comprised of extracts from the diary of G. Rex Holland, of British Columbia, who spent two years among peoples who are suffering the oppression of Communism, under the iron rule of the central government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. It is a timely publication, offering, as it does, a direct contradiction to the propagandists who, in America, and elsewhere, are declaring that Russia is the only country now being governed under principles which make for freedom and happiness.
